

COUNTRY MUSIC HALL OF FAME® AND MUSEUM

Planned Giving

OUR CIRCLE CONTINUES

We invite you to make a lasting difference

Through our planned giving program, the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum offers you the opportunity to secure the institution's mission to preserve the history and traditions of country music for future generations by including the Museum in your estate plans.

It is easy to support the Museum with a gift in your will.

If you already have one, simply inform your lawyer of your intent. The following is a sample bequest provision:

I, {YOUR NAME}, give and devise to the Country Music Hall of Fame and Museum, located in Nashville, Tennessee, {WRITTEN AMOUNT OF BEQUEST OR WRITTEN PERCENTAGE OF THE RESIDUE OF YOUR ESTATE}, to be used for its general support (or for the support of a specific fund or program).

The Cindy Walker Society

When you include the Museum in your estate plans, we recognize you as a member of the Cindy Walker Society.

This prestigious membership provides a lifetime of benefits, including:

- Invitations to select exhibition openings and receptions
- Complimentary catalog with the opening of new exhibitions
  - Regular updates of Museum programs and events
  - Acknowledgment on the Cindy Walker Society donor wall, coming in 2017
  - Recognition in the annual report

An Everlasting Legacy

With hundreds of titles to her credit, Cindy Walker is a songwriting pioneer. Upon her passing in 2008, she willed her future song royalties to the Museum. This provided the critical and necessary support to sustain the institution through an economic recession and secure our future. Through planned giving, she left a legacy as everlasting as the songs that made her famous. Today the Cindy Walker Society honors her generosity and invites others to join the mission to preserve and present country music's story.
