I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry*Hank Williams*

Hear that lonesome whippoorwill
He sounds too blue to fly
The midnight train is whining low
I'm so lonesome I could cry

I've never seen a night so long
When time goes crawling by
The moon just went behind the clouds
To hide its face and cry

Did you ever see a robin weep
When leaves begin to die
That means he's lost the will to live
I'm so lonesome I could cry

The silence of a falling star
Lights up a purple sky
And as I wonder where you are
I'm so lonesome I could cry

*Hank Williams wrote about intense heartbreak in songs like "I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry."
Although he died young, in 1953, he remains one of country music's greatest songwriters.*
