

“Lucky to be Loving You”

It's March 17th
Everything I see is green
Shamrocks are everywhere
There's a little leprechaun with bright red hair
Your love is my pot of gold
It makes me feel young even when I'm old

I feel so lucky, lucky to be loving you
I hope you feel the same way too
lucky to be loving you

Even though it's cold outside
I feel so warm, your love I cannot hide
When I kissed the blarney stone
I knew I'd never be alone

You make me feel happy
Even when I'm blue
It's just what you do

I feel so lucky, lucky to be loving you
I hope you feel the same way too
lucky to be loving you

You're my four-leaf clover
You make me feel lucky all over

I feel so lucky, lucky to be loving you
I hope you feel the same way too
lucky to be loving you
