Bridges*Victoria Banks / Emily Doty / Mickey Guyton / Karen Kosowski*

You're on your side and I'm on mine
 And in between this great divide
 There's fire in the streets
 People on their knees

Holding bibles and breaking glass
 Guns and armor, tears and gas
 If smoke is all we see
 How we supposed to breathe?

What if we took these stones we've been throwin'?

What if we laid 'em down?

What if we forget all that we know and
 Make some common ground

What if I reach for you, you reach for me, and close the distance?

What if that space between changed if we started building

Bridges, bridges, bridges

I know you're scared and so am I
 But that don't mean we shouldn't try
 It ain't just black or white
 It's down to wrong or right

What if we took these stones we've been
 throwin'?

What if we laid 'em down?

 Make some common ground

What if I reach for you, you reach for me, and
 close the distance?

What if that space between changed if we
 started building

Bridges, bridges, bridges

We're gonna need more than prayers and wishes
 To build those bridges, bridges, bridges
 It's gonna take way more work to fix it Gotta build those bridges, bridges, bridges

We gotta take these stones we've been throwin'
 We gotta lay them down
 We gotta forget all that we know and
 Make some common ground

What if I reach for you, you reach for me, and
 close the distance?

What if that space between changed if we started building

Bridges, bridges, bridges
 Bridges, bridges, bridges
 Gonna build those bridges, bridges, bridges
 Bridges, bridges, bridges
