“I Can’t Quit You Baby”Willie Dixon

Well, I can't quit you baby
But I got to put you down a little while
Well, I can't quit you baby
But I got to put you down a little while
Well, you done made me mess up my happy home
Made me mistreat my only child

Ah, when you hear me moanin' and groanin'
Whoa, you know it hurts me way down inside
Whoa, when you hear me moanin' and groanin'
You know it hurts way down inside
Oh, when you hear me howlin'
Ooh, you know my love will never die, alright

Well, when you see me cryin'
Don't let my tears fall in vain
Well, when you see me cryin,
Darlin', please don't let my tears fall in vain
Lord, I don't know what to do
You know my heart is filled with pain

Whoa, when you hear me howlin', baby
You know it hurts way down inside

Willie Dixon (1915–1992) is considered the father of modern Chicago blues and served as a crucial link between the blues and rock & roll. In addition to writing more than 500 songs, he wrote, produced, arranged, and played bass on sessions for Chuck Berry, Muddy Waters, and others.
