

Songwriting 101
Saturday, November 25, 2023

"The Good and the Bad"

By Alex Hall and Participants in Songwriting 101

Walking through the hallways like I'm not there at all
I wish the world could feel what it's like to feel small
All the kids brush past like I'm just gum under their shoe
(But I) gotta keep walking 'til the sky turns blue

When life gives you lemons, you gotta make lemonade
Forget about the rain and have a parade
Sometimes you're happy and sometimes you're sad
You gotta take life with the good and the bad

Ready to crumble, when the world feels so vile
Strong and humble, held together with a smile
My friends pick me up when I need a helping hand
Like a warm ray of sun that reminds I can

When life gives you lemons, you gotta make lemonade
Forget about the rain and have a parade
Sometimes you're happy and sometimes you're sad
You gotta take life with the good and the bad

Solo

When life gives you lemons, you gotta make lemonade
Forget about the rain and have a parade
Sometimes you're happy and sometimes you're sad
You gotta take life with the good and the bad

Don't let it all make you get so mad
You gotta take life with the good and the bad
You gotta take life with the good and the bad